

PCJFS 'Back To School Bash'

Recently staff members of Perry County Job and Family Services assembled at the Perry County Fairgrounds to continue their 'Back To School Bash' distribution. They handed out bookbags with school supplies and school t-shirts and tennis shoes for those who requested them. Of the initial 737 families who applied, 636 have received their items as of Sept. 17. Remaining items were being distributed from the PCJFS office.
