

‘Coats for Kids’ applications

Recently staff members of Perry County Job and Family Services assembled at the Perry County Fairgrounds to hand out winter coats for children in need. Over 800 coats have been provided, and applications for winter coats are still being taken. Those interested should contact Mendra Hupp at 342-3551, Ext. 645 or an application can be picked up at the PCJFS building at 212 South Main Street in New Lexington.
