Fueling needs of the community

The Perry County Department of Job and Family Services is offering a fuel assistance program to employed income-eligible individuals through September 30, or until funds are exhausted.

Eligible individuals must be a resident of Perry County, employed at least 25 hours per week and living at or below 200 percent of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL).

Family size annual guidelines: Family of one: $21,660; Two: $29,140; Three: $36,620; Four: $44,100, and a family of five, $51,580.

Applicants are required to provide proof of identity, birth, pay stubs for the past 30 days of employment and a social security number.

Monthly fuel vouchers are issued from the agency in the amounts of $50 or $100, depending on miles traveled to employment. Once determined eligible, applicants could receive up to $300 over the span of the program.

Applications are accepted in person Monday-Friday 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For questions concerning this program, please call Cecile Wells at 342-2206, ext. 612.
