

In the Public Eye

Featured this week In the Public Eye is Mendra Hupp, an employee of Perry County Job & Family Services. Mendra is recognized for her part in the recent 'Back to School Bash,' distributing book bags, school supplies, shoes and tee shirts to those in need. She played a lead role in the organization of the event, working with various community organizations, vendors and volunteers. Mendra's dedication, commitment and compassion for those in need was instrumental in the success of this event.
