

PC Transit & JFS: sole control

Recently Perry County Transit driver Bill Gahman made a donated run from Payless Shoes in Zanesville to deliver over 100 pairs to the staff of Perry County Job and Family Services who unloaded them and took them to the nearby First United Methodist Church for distribution to area school children in need.